

ABSTRACT

Rifqi Hadiyatulloh. D05209050. 2013. The Study of English Idiom Used by the Tenth Grade Students in Speaking Class at SMAN 1 Sooko, Mojokerto. English Department, Faculty of Education and Teacher Training, State Institute for Islamic Studies. Akh. Muzakki, Grad, Dip, SEA, M.Ag, M.Phil, Ph.D

Key word: English Idioms.

The research is conducted to find out 2 major goals. The first is the daily English idiom used by the tenth grade students at SMAN 1 sooko, Mojokerto and the second goal from this research is going to find out the students' reasons of using daily English idioms. The researcher uses descriptive qualitative to do this research. To gain the data the researcher uses the observation to get the data find out the first goal then use questionnaire and interview to get the data for the second goal. From the questionnaire the researcher finds 41 words of daily English idioms in two meetings. Then from the questionnaire and interview, it can be concluded that the majority of the students like to study and use daily English idioms because the teacher often teaches and uses it in the learning process and the students enable to recognize idiomatic usage and to interpret idioms accordingly.