CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter provides the conclusion based on the summary of the data analysis in the previous chapter. The suggestion is also inserted by the researcher to share the research for the next researcher who does research the same or similar this research.

5.1 Conclusion

Based on the findings and discussions in the previous chapter. The researcher is able to take conclusion that is in Minion Movie script, the researcher founds several things. Firstly, there are eight strategies of word formation process, which exists in Minion Movie script. Those are borrowing, compounding, clipping, backformation, acronyms, derivation, conversion and wishy-washy word and there are 50 data that are found in Minion Movie script. The most common processes used the type of word formation processes in Minion Movie is borrowing. It has 32% from 50 of data that involved the process of borrowing. The second type word formation is derivation that mostly exists about 24 % of data. Then, it is followed by compounding about 16% of data. The next is clipping about 8% of data. Backformation, conversion and wishy-washy considered as next rank, in each of them 6% of data, and the last is acronym about 2% of data.

Second, there are seven particular word classes shows in Minion Movie script. There are noun, article, adjective, verb, adverb, preposition, pronoun. The researcher found 42% of data that indicates as noun, 24% of data that is categorized as verb, 20% of data indicates as adjective, 6% of data indicates adverb, 4% of data indicates as pronoun, 2% of data indicates as article and preposition. Based on the finding, The most common word classes in Minion Movie script is noun. It has 42% or 21 new words from total 50 data.

71

5.2 Suggestion

Based on the conclusion above, the researcher expects to the next researches will analyze about word formation process not only type but also the meaning specially connotation and denotation in order to get deep comprehension in the context of the situation. The future researches can continue this research more deeply and elaborate each types of word formation and also the meaning of each of types word formation. Besides, the researcher expects suggestions from the reader in order to repair to be more accurate and perfect of this research.