

Chapter IV

Conclusion

A lot of settings are appearing in the Blindness. The setting contributes to make the story live. Setting also contributes the meaning of the story. The settings portray the city which all of the society get the blind disaster. The condition and situation is worse especially in the city or in the ward.

The settings that appear in this novel represent some cases. The moral depravity is a big problem. The first condition in moral depravity is the broken of human rules. After the blind disease spreads, people live without morality. If people live without morality they cannot be a good people. It is depicted by the filthiness that occurs everywhere.

Without morality crime happens everywhere. The crime increases with wickedness like the violence. The worst of the crime is murder. Without respect and care, the city is like the dead city. After all, the social collapse is proven. Those are happen in Blindness.
