CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

Based on the analysis above, there are some results that is concluded. The first is about description of Aksionov. Aksionov is one of main character that is described as a seller. He is handsome with yellow wavy hair and funny person. Besides that, He like to sing even though Aksionov is famous as a seller but he also has good voice but it is only hobby to comfort himself.

The second is about conflict which influences Aksionov. Aksionov gets prison for 26 years because he is accused killing another seller when he stayed in Prison, Aksionov learns to receive a life and tries to give forgiveness for someone making him to stay in prison.

The third is an unconscious of Aksionov's behavior. In this story, Aksionov's unconscious started when he was declared as defendant on seller's died. The pain whis occurred to Aksionov made him became a good man. Finally, he knew who has made him become in prison. It was made by Makar. Nobody knew why Aksionov could apologize Makar who has made all have done. Then, they apologized each other.