

CONCLUSION

Juliette is a seventeen years old girl who has something that she herself does not realize. This thing is considered dangerous which makes her parents and surrounding people initiate to bring her into a rude isolation. It makes her also as a timid, weak and coward girl. Juliette makes a new decision in her life that is revenging to Anderson which give impacts in her life. Juliette successes to escape from the isolation and that Omega Pont smashed. She tries to break hear fear to defense and try to control her power.

41

and superego when she takes various decision. Furthermore, the anxiety theory will contribute the researcher in order to uncover the kinds and influences of her anxieties.

The analysis in the third chapter in this thesis proves that Juliette Ferrars experiences the authority war between her id and superego. As an ordinary man who as flesh and blood (id), she is the individual who only makes efforts to cast about her own contentment. However, on the other hand she has moral standard and social values which come from her environment. Thus, her ego urgently need to accommodate both of them fairly through modus operandi. In the other words, the ego needs to create or have a strategy in order to be good moderator. In addition, her ego actualizes her id and superego by acting as a coward girl and experiences the authority war between her id and superego. As an ordinary man who as flesh and blood (id), she is the individual who only makes efforts to cast about her own contentment. However, on the other hand she has moral standard and social values which come from her environment. Thus, her ego urgently needs to accommodate both of them fairly through modus operandi. In the other words, the ego needs to create or have a strategy in order to be good moderator. In addition, her ego actualizes her id and superego by acting as a coward girl and because of her internal conflict within herself. First, she experiences fear and anxiety facing bad and painful reality when she was to Omega Point that had been destroyed, she feels anxious for fear of facing the fact that if later her f the most important thing is that people should have some knowledge of psychological k her fear and tries to control her power. The second is she receives Warner offer because Warner can give better facility, such a rehearsal. And the e invites her friends to join with her team. With inviting her friends it m tte Ferrars get stronger because many people help her. With these steps tte Ferrars was able to run his Ambition for revenge on Anderson and d Reestablishment.