

ABSTRACT

Nirmala, Desy Surya. 2014. ILLOCUTIONARY ACT USED IN SUSILO BAMBANG YUDHOYONO INTERVIE. Thesis. English Department, Faculty of Letters and Humanities, State Islamic University of Sunan Ampel Surabaya. Advisor: Dr. Mohammad Kurjum, M.Ag

Illocutionary act is a part of speech act. This theory emphasizes not only saying something, but also doing and expressing something. Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono is president in Indonesia. The researcher interests to concentrate and examine illocutionary act focusing on Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono Interview.

This research investigates what types of illocutionary act used in Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono interview in the years of 2011 and 2012 and the context of situation that occur in Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono. This research uses a descriptive qualitative method. To describe and explain the phenomena of speech act, especially illocutionary act used in Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono interview.

The data sources of this research are the utterances found in Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono interview. There are several steps for data collection. the researcher goes to internet and browses the official website. The next step is selects, and pick up the data refers to the problems of this study by classifies and selects an illocutionary act. The last the researcher account the result of illocutionary verb to cross check. Based on the finding of this research, Illocutionary act used by Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono interview can be described as follows: the majority illocutionary act used by the speaker is representatives, and illocutionary verb which is mostly used is informing. In this part of interview, the speaker performs direct speech act since the utterance happens when form and function matches.

As the result of this study, it is hoped to the future researchers to observe broader research of speech act, focusing on Illocutionary act because there are many other areas which are possible to be researched.

Key words: Illocutionary act, Interview, Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono