

There are many reasons, why the students are being passive in speaking lesson? They are: lack of must create the good condition in the class in order to solve the problem above; the teacher can use some techniques to activate the student in speaking lesson. The teacher must motivate the student to use English, the teacher make sure that English is useful for them to finding job, education, etc. the tea, the teacher must help the student to correct their English by direct or indirect. Besides, to support the student to be active in class, they must create the good interaction in class (include student – student and teacher – student). The good interaction in class can improve the student motivation, their bravery, etc.

Zoltan domyeu and Csizer (1998:215) offered a set often commands for motivating learners. All ten items focused on what the teacher can do stimulate intrinsic motivation:

- a. Set a personal example with your own behavior.
- b. Create a pleasant, relaxed atmosphere in the classroom.
- c. Present the task property.
- d. Develop a good relationship with the learners.
- e. Increase the learner linguistic self- confidence.
- f. Make the language classes interesting.
- g. Promote learner autonomy.
- h. Personalize the learning process.
- i. Increase the learners' goal-orientedness.

