CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter present the conclusion and suggestion based on the analysis. The conclusion is from he summary of the analysis that has been discussion on chapter IV. The suggestion of this research is for the next researcher who are interested in conducting the same research about code mixing theory.

5.1 Conclusion

There are two main topics that have been discussed in this research. Firstly, it is about the form of code mixing which used in the Long Distance Hearts 2 novel. Secondly, it is about the reason of code mixing which used in the Long Distance Hearts 2 novel. Those two main topics are related to the statement of problem. After doing this research, the researcher found some conclusion as follows;

The researcher take the data starting from chapter 1 until chapter 6 in the Long Distance Hearts 2 novel. According to the data analysis on chapter IV, there are six form of code mixing used in the Long Distance Hearts 2 novel. The researcher find the insertion of word, the insertion of phrase, the insertion of hybrid, the insertion of word reduplication, the insertion of idiom, the insertion of clause. Based on the data that has been taken, majorities the form of code mixing that often exist in those novel are insertion of word and insertion of phrase. The researcher find 19 datum in insertion of word and 14 datum in insertion of phrase.

The other form of code mixing, that is insertion of hybrid has 7 datum, the insertion of word reduplication has 2 datum, the insertion of idiom has 5 datum, and the last the insertion of clause has 4 datum.

Based on the data analysis, the researcher also find the reason of code mixing which used in the Long Distance Hearts 2 novel. From the seven reason of code mixing which mentioned in chapter II, the researcher find four reason which exist in those novel. They are; talking about particular topic, interjection, repetition used for clarification, and intention of clarifying the speech content for interlocutor. Meanwhile, for the reason of quoting somebody else, being emphatic about something (express solidarity) and the reason of expressing group identity, the researcher did not find those reason in the Long Distance Hearts 2 novel.

5.2 Suggestion

After the researcher finishes this research, the researcher will give some suggestion about this research. The researcher recognizes that this research still has many weaknesses. For the next researcher who will research of code mixing theory, it is hopes that can include all aspect about code mixing, it means that the next researcher can make a deep analysis. The researcher also hopes that for the next researcher can continue this research and write the better research.

The researcher hopes this research can give a benefit for the readers, can increase the knowledge for the student of English Literature especially who will conduct a research in code mixing theory. In the literary work, there will be many sociolinguistics field that can be analyzed in the future.
