CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Based on the data analysis, the researcher finds the types of violation of maxims that uttered by Becca in Vampires Suck movie. There are four types of violation of maxims that uttered by Becca in that movie. They are violation of quantity maxim, violation of quality maxim, violation of relation maxim and violation of manner maxim. From four types of violation of maxims, there are seventeen utterances that contains of violation of maxims. Violation of quantity maxim is the dominants use in that movie. There are nine violation of quantity maxim. Furthermore, the second dominant is violation of relation maxim which has six utterances. Afterward, violation of quality and quantity maxim have same number of utterance which have only one utterance.

Furthermore, the researcher finds the reasons of violation of maxim in Vampires Suck movie. There are six types of reason to violate of maxims. Those are hides the truth, save face, avoid hurt the hearer, convince the hearer, cheer the hearer and satisfy the hearer. In her utterance, Becca violates of quantity maxim in various reasons. Those reasons are save face, hide the truth, convince the hearer, satisfy the hearer, cheer the hearer and avoid hurt. Whereas, the reason of Becca violates of quality maxim is to avoid hurt. Then, Becca gives the reason to violate of quality maxim in various reasons. Those reasons are save face, satisfy the hearer, and hide the truth. Whereas, the reason of Becca violates of manner maxim is for saves her face.

The researcher knows that the reason of Becca saves face because she is shy with other character's utterance. Their utterances make Becca disappointed. This reason is the most dominants use by Becca. Becca uses the reason of save face seven times. Meanwhile, the reason of Becca convince other characters because she wants to make the other characters believed. Becca uses this reason three times. Then, satisfaction is the reason of Becca to make the other characters satisfied. Becca uses this reason three times. The same amount of reason also occurs on the reason of Becca hiding the truth. Furthermore, the reason of Becca cheers and avoids hurt the other character because she does not want the other characters disappointed about Becca's utterance or the condition in the story of that movie. Becca only uses cheer reason in one time and she uses avoid hurt reason in two times.

5.2 Suggestion

Violation of maxim is disobeyed the rule of cooperative principle. It always defines as something bad. But, bad does not always mean bad. This condition depends on how people see it in the different context. Therefore, the people can violate the maxim that they have specific reason and condition. But, they do not violate of maxim if there is not specific reason and condition because it makes the other people or hearer confuses.
