

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

4.1. Conclusion.

After analyzing Harry Potter and the order of Phoenix novel Written by J.K Rowling's, the researcher concludes as following:

Harry Potter and the Order of Phoenix is about Ron's Family give loving acts to Harry Potter. In this novel the researcher see their characteristic, on how Ron's Family appearance in this novel, how their faces Harry Potter as the orphan in this novel. By referring to discussion, the researcher uses new criticism theory; that theory was cognitive in interpreting loving acts to Harry Potter by Ron's Family.

From the result of analysis of this novel as it has been explained above, the researcher can re tells that Ron's Family character really good actions. Especially, loving acts to the orphan by Ron's Family in Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix novel. The example Mrs. Weasley acts, she giving foods to Harry Potter. Mrs. Wesley appeared in the bedroom doorway. "The meeting's over, you can come down and have dinner now, everyone's dying to see you, Harry. And who's left all those Dungbombs outside the kitchen door?" (J.K. Rowling's 75). The Ron's Family acts also same with the concept of loving acts to the orphan by verse Al-Qur'an. There are four aspects: giving foods, saying goods words, paying attentions, and helping the orphan.

From all the analysis towards the character of Ron's Family, the researcher concludes that Ron's Family represents a character of good actions in Harry Potter and the order of the phoenix novel. Although, Ron's family there no relation with Harry Potter, their family always continues stand bay to Harry Potter to help. This ideal characterization of Ron's Family is in accordance with one verse in the Quran "And they give food in spite of love for it to the needy, the orphan, and the captive," (Quran, Al- Insan: 8). Having this good moral value within their character, the researcher marks that Ron's Family is a good character in this story.
