CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter will present conclusions and suggestions from the research findings and discussion. This chapter also demonstrates the result from the data analysis.

A. Conclusion

Based on the research finding, it can be conclude as the following:

- 1. The students can write an argument well. The argumentative essay contains the opening paragraph that seeks the agreement of the reader. Thus, on the next paragraph is the claim. Finally, it was completed with the conclusion. The students' essay has consisted of those three points. In addition, the students have different skill to write an argument. First student emphasizes on evaluation claim. Second students focus on factual claim. Thus, the other highlight on the recommendation claim. On the other hand, the students have the same idea in writing an introduction. In addition, they use the same technique, it is called introduction by generalization.
- 2. The studentspublished argument writing in newspaper caused by five factors. There are having writing habit, being confidence, having motivation, having particular way for publication and positive environment. For this term, all of the students have writing habit. It is proven that have been interested in writing when they were senior high school. Thus, in university the student felt confidence to publish their writing. The students also have positive environment which support them to write. Therefore, they get motivation from people around them. Besides, the students also have particular way to write on public. There are considering the happening issues, paying attention to the requirement of the publisher, having corrector for the writing before sent to newspaper.

B. Suggestion

In the end, the researcher gives some suggestion related to the result of this research, they are:

1. For the students

The students should ask the other students to respect more in writing. They can share their experience in writing on newspaper. Hopefully, the students will always interest for writing activity.

2. For the lecturer and department

The lecturer and the department are suggested to keep on trying to make an effort in improving students' writing skill. Therefore, it is better for lecturer and department to have some programs like weekly writing competition. By having this program, it will motivate students to write.

3. For the next researcher

For the next researchers who are interested in the same topic, it is suggested to conduct the deeper research than this. After knowing this research, maybe the next researcher can observe the differences between students who write on newspaper with the other.
