3.3 Data and Sources of Data

The data of this research was from the video's transcript. The researcher watched and listened the movie and collected all the swear words which exist in it. The researcher also collected data about the intonation, mimic, and body movement that used by the characters of "The grey" movie.

The data source of this research is the transcript of the grey videos. The researcher found out all of the videos from the website (www.youtube.com) then, she decided to download.

3.4 Instrument

In qualitative research, the main instrument was the researcher herself, notes, video cassettes "The grey", television and some books reference related to the topic. Therefore, the proper instrument to obtain and analyze the data in this research was the researcher itself. In addition, the researcher watched the movie, understanding, took note the swear word that used, analyzing, and took for the script.

3.5 Data Collection

In order to collect data the researcher used some steps. First, the researcher used the video's transcript by downloading on www.youtube.com. Second, the researcher watched the movie for several time until she could get the data and make a list of the swear words. And the last the researcher read for several times until she understood what the videos were talking about.

3.6 Data Analysis

After making a list of swear word which occurs in the movie, the researcher analyzed by the following steps: (1) kind of swear word classification, which consist of nine terms to make easier the analysis. (2) Selecting the best swear word that used mostly in this movie, based on the theory of Liedlich and Wardhaugh. (3) Analysis selecting the best swear words. (4) Making conclusion as the result of analysis and the findings.

The sample table of swear words classification or categorization is as follows:

No	Categories of Swear Word	Number	The Frequency
1.	Copulative terms
2.	Excretory Terms
	Sexual Irregularities
4.	Body Function terms
5.	Animal terms
6.	Mother in Law		