CHAPTER III

RESEARCH METHOD

3.1 Research Approach

This thesis used Descriptive method to describe Javanese swears words which occur in facebook. Descriptive method is a method that the researcher focuses on observing a subject and recording a description of the observation. It covers the research design, subject of the study, and source of data, instrument of the study, data collection and data analysis technique. In this way, the data are in forms of description of utterances within social interaction according to what have been directly observed in the facebook as one of the means of Computer-Mediated Communication (CMC).

3.2 Technique of data collection

3.2.1 Source of the Data

This research conducted on facebook. The writer got the data information from the facebookers post in facebook.

3.2.2 Instrument of the Study

In descriptive research, the main instrument is laptop or PC. The second instrument is a sociolinguistics book, and the third instrument is note book to taking a note.

3.2.3 Procedure

The writer connects to internet and opens his facebook and then collected data by going through the following procedures:The first step, the writer searchedand read all of Javanese facebookers account that posted used a swear words in their facebook wall, in this step the writer search five account from all Javanese facebookers in facebook, the writer did this step started to November 2013, and the writer will did this step until the writer has many data for the thesis.The second step, the writer found the Javanese female account that used Javanese swear words in their posted, the writer directly made a note and took a photo the data and the writer also directly saved the data in computer.The third step, the writer was by put the data based on the main theories such as copulative terms, excretory terms, human genital terms, sexual irregularities term, and animal terms, the writer also put the data into categories based on the swear words purposes.

3.3 Data Analysis Technique

After collecting the data, the writer tried to analyze them do the following steps: (1) taking the data collecting before, and reading, (2) selecting the best post, and utterances of the data, (3) analyzing the data according to the theory of Javanese swear word, types of Javanese swear word, and the purpose used Javanese swear words state in facebook. (4) Reading the post in facebook to investigate the emotion of the post, and (5) making conclusion as the result of analysis and findings.