CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This chapter presents the conclusion of the study from the findings and discussion in the previous chapter. It also offers some suggestions for further studies on the same issue of multiple violation of conversational maxim which derived by Grice

5.1. Conclusion

Based on the data analysis, the researcher found five types of multiple violation which was uttered by Luffy in One Piece Comic Volume 51. Those were violating Maxim of Quality and Maxim of Quantity, violating Maxim of Quality and Maxim of Relation, violating Maxim of Quantity and Maxim of Relation. Violating Maxim of Quantity and Maxim of Manner, the last violating Maxim of Manner and Maxim of Relation. There were fifteen utterances which was included in multiple violation. The dominant was multiple violating maxim of quantity and maxim of relation. It had six datas of violating. For others multiple violating maxim of quantity and maxim of manner and multiple multiple violating maxim of quality and maxim of relation got three datas on each violating. The next was violating maxim of relation and maxim of manner had two datas. The minimum was violating maxim of quality and maxim of quantity had one datafor multiple violating maxim of quality and maxim of quantity has one utterance that is happened in comic one Piece Volume 51.

Furthermore, the researcher finds the reason of multiple violating maxim in One Piece Comic. There are seven types of reason to violate of maxims. Those are hide the truth, save face, feel jealous about something, statisfying the hearer, cheer the hearer, building one's belief, convincing the hearer. Luffy often used hide the truth and convincing the hearer to be the reason to violate the maxim.

5.2. Suggestion

Violation of maxim is one of the disobeyed rule of cooperative principle. There are some suggestion fo further studies on the same field or same object or both.

1. It also uses the Grice's theory in all character in the comic or other areas that suitable to be conducted.

2. The relevant theory to support the main theory is recommended, such as the purpose to violate the maxim and the cultural background.
