

CHAPTER 4

CONCLUSION

There are three main topics which are discussed in this thesis. The first topic is about the description of Weedon's family. The second topic is about the problem of Krystal Weedon's family life. And the last topic is about the effect of family condition on Krystal Weedon's life. Krystal Weedon is one of characters in the novel The Casual Vacancy. She becomes the main discussion in this thesis analysis. All the statement problems tell about Krystal Weedon and her family life.

In the beginning topic, it tells about Weedon's family. It is about the condition of Weedon's and the family member who lives in. There are three people who live in Weedon's family. They are Terri Weedon, Krystal Weedon, and Robbie Weedon. After explaining Weedon's family in the first topic, the following topic tells about the problems which appear in Weedon's family life. The problems are about no father figure, an addict mother, and Krystal's role in the family. Those problems make Krystal get some bad effect to her life which is told in the last topic. Those bad effects are that she becomes tough, violent, impolite, criminal, and naughty girl.

In analyzing all of the statement problems, the writer uses New Criticism theory. It is used because the writer analyzes the intrinsic element of the novel. It

