ABSTRACT

Azizah, N.M. (2024). Pre-Service Teachers' Reflections on Their Language and Intercultural Skills during International Teaching Practice in Thailand. A Thesis. English Language Education Department, Faculty of Tarbiyah and Teacher Training, UIN Sunan Ampel Surabaya. Supervisors: Sigit Pramono Jati, M.Pd, Ph.D and Rakhmawati, M.Pd.

Key Words: language skills, intercultural skills, international teaching practice, reflection

Reflection is one of the tools to channel expressions of the learning process that is taking place and being carried out and to find out whether the learning process is going well or not, for example in the international teaching practice program. Some studies found that there are several issues experienced by Indonesian pre-service teachers during the teaching internship. Hence, this paper aims to explore Indonesian pre-service teachers' reflections on their language and intercultural skills during participation in an international teaching practicum in Thailand. The qualitative case study was chosen in this study to explore participants' experiences and the reflection of the program. The study interviewed and collected the reflective journals of four Indonesian pre-service teachers from UIN Sunan Ampel Surabaya, especially the English Language Education students. The findings showed that Indonesian pre-service teachers when participated in teaching abroad in Thailand experienced language barriers includes internal, external, and psychological barriers. In addition, Indonesian pre-service teachers also faced cultural barriers includes communication barriers, educational system of the host country, and the integration of technology. However, the response received by Indonesian pre-service teachers when experiencing language and cultural barriers with the school environment and residents was very welcoming and there was no discrimination in participating in the program. In addition, both students and teachers often help and advice Indonesian pre-service teachers to overcome language obstacles faced during the teaching internship in Thailand.

ABSTRACT

Azizah, N.M. (2024). Refleksi Guru Pra-Jabatan dalam Kemampuan Bahasa dan Antar Budayanya selama Praktek Mengajar Internasional di Thailand. Sebuah tesis. Jurusan Pendidikan Bahasa Inggris, Fakultas Tarbiyah dan Keguruan, UIN Sunan Ampel Surabaya. Pembimbing: Sigit Pramono Jati, M.Pd, Ph.D dan Rakhmawati, M.Pd.

Key Words: kemampuan bahasa, kemampuan antar budaya, praktik mengajar internasional, refleksi

Refleksi merupakan salah satu alat untuk menyalurkan ekspresi proses pembelajaran yang sedang berlangsung dan sedang dilaksanakan serta untuk mengetahui apakah proses pembelajaran tersebut berjalan dengan baik atau tidak, seperti contohnya dalam program praktik mengajar internasional. Beberapa penelitian menemukan bahwa ada beberapa permasalahan yang dialami oleh calon guru di Indonesia selama magang mengajar. Oleh karena itu, makalah ini bertujuan untuk mengeksplorasi refleksi guru pra-jabatan dalam keterampilan bahasa dan antar budayanya selama partisipasinya dalam praktik pengajaran internasional di Thailand. Studi kasus kualitatif dipilih dalam penelitian ini untuk mengeksplorasi pengalaman peserta dan refleksi program. Penelitian ini mewawancara dan mengumpulkan jurnal reflektif empat guru prajabatan Indonesia dari UIN Sunan Ampel Surabaya, khususnya mahasiswa Jurusan Pendidikan Bahasa Inggris. Temuan menunjukkan bahwa calon guru di Indonesia menghadapi kendala bahasa dan budaya saat mengajar di luar negeri, yaitu di Thailand. Namun respon yang diterima guru prajabatan Indonesia ketika mengalami kendala bahasa dan budaya dengan lingkungan sekolah dan warga sangat ramah dan tidak ada diskriminasi dalam mengikuti program. Selain itu, baik siswa maupun guru sering membantu dan memberi nasehat kepada guru prajabatan Indonesia untuk mengatasi kendala bahasa yang dihadapi selama magang mengajar di Thailand.
